Graduate Programs

The graduate programs in the department of School Leadership/Middle & Secondary Teacher Education are designed to prepare personnel to assume leadership roles as lead teachers, building-leadership team members, coordinators, supervisors, principals, superintendents, and other central office personnel.

The Master of Science and licensure programs in Educational Administration qualify students for Building-Level Leadership licensure.

The Master of Science degree in Curriculum and Instruction offer four concentrations to prepare teachers to become staff development coordinators, curriculum specialists, and practitioners. Specific concentrations are 1) Curriculum Leadership, 2) Effective Practitioner, 3) National Board Certification, and 4) Instructional Coach/Teacher Leader.

The Master of Education in Teaching degree provides two options: 1) a master's program for those who are already licensed teachers or are in another teaching profession outside of public education, 2) a master's program for those pursuing Restricted Licensure in Kansas. Students pursuing Restricted Licensure must be degree seeking students in the M.Ed. program – Option 2.

Admission and Retention Policies

Application for admission to all graduate programs listed must be initiated online at www.emporia.edu/grad/admissions. Copies of official transcripts of all college credit must be provided by degree-seeking students. Students must successfully submit all department admission items. Students are expected to continuously demonstrate personal characteristics appropriate to the profession and, maintain a 3.0 GPA or better through their program. Degree seeking students must file a degree plan within their first year in the program and notify the Graduate School office of their intent to graduate during the semester preceding their semester of expected graduation.

Students in the master's degree programs must pass a final comprehensive examination over courses completed.

COMPLETION OF THE ABOVE STANDARDS DOES NOT GUARANTEE ADMISSION TO A DEGREE OR LICENSE/LICENSURE PROGRAM AT EMPORIA STATE UNIVERSITY.

Admission Requirements for Master of Science and Licensure Only for Educational Administration:

1. Admission to graduate study by the ESU Graduate School.
2. GPA of 3.0 on the last 60 hours of college course work for degree-seeking students or last 30 graduate hours for non-degree building level administration. GPA of 3.0 on the first 30 hours of graduate work for district level administration.
